and Stops Snuffling and Hawking

In the morning, shortly after you awake, dear reader, do you have to hawk and strain to get that stubborn piece of mucus out of your throat?

Get rid of catarrh now; it will grow worse as you grow older. One day of breathing pleasant, healing HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-mei) the guaranteed catarrh remedy will give you such wonderful relief that you will wonder why you doubted the statement that Booth's HYOMEI would end the most aggravating cause of catarrh.

A hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of HYOMEI, with simple instructions for use, is $1.00. This is called the HYOMEI outfit. If one bottle does not banish your catarrh, you can get another for only 50 cents. Thousands use it for coughs, cold and croup. Sold by Tragle Drug Co. and druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Mother of Convicted Rockingham
Mail Clerk Seeks Parole for Her Son.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Harrisonburg, Va., December 16.—George E. Hoffman, the Rockingham mail clerk, now serving three years in the Atlanta prison, has a faithful friend in his mother, Mrs. D. A. Hoffman, who left here yesterday for Washington, where she goes armed with a petition to present to President Taft asking for a parole for her son. The mother says that she has "cried her eyes out" over her wayward boy, whom she stands by in spite of the fact that he confessed to stealing $20,000 from the mails.

With a view to making Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pa., the leading United Brethren institution in the country, and Shenandoah Collegiate Institute, of Dayton, the principal preparatory school and feeder to the Annville college, a committee composed of Dr. Gossard, president of Lebanon Valley College, and Dr. W. H. Washington, of Chambersburg, Pa., superintendent of the Pennsylvania conference, are in session with a local committee representing Shenandoah Collegiate Institute. Lebanon Valley hopes to hold Eastern students that tend to drift to Gettysburg University, in Ohio.

Saturday, four miles east of town, Marie Showalter, twenty-one years old, son of Frank Showalter, a prominent farmer, was thrown from a buggy rick in a runaway, falling under the horses and sustaining a severe fracture of the skull, together with other injuries about the head and body. He was taken into a nearby farmhouse. He will likely recover.

In a spectacular runaway Saturday afternoon, A. M. Thacker was thrown from the wagon, and the four-horse team dashed half a mile down High Street. Thirty barrels of apples were spilled into the street, scattering the racetrack fruit broadcast. C. D. Wenger, the driver of the apples, lost $50. The driver was uninjured.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST NEGRO

Robinson Admits He Shot Williams, but He Claims Self-Defense.

DINWIDDIE COURT OPENS

Three Cases of Importance on Criminal Docket—Petersburg News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
5 Hollingsbrook Street,
(Telephone 1485)

Petersburg, Va., December 16.

Preston Robinson, a negro merchant in Prince George, is under arrest and in jail in that county, on the charge of murder. Robinson conducted a store about three miles from the courthouse, and it appears, ran a "blind tiger" in connection with his merchandise business. Saturday night Archer Williams, colored, who had previously bought liquor at the store, went there and wanted to get some whiskey on credit. He was refused, when a quarrel followed, and Williams was shot dead by Robinson, and it is said the body was concealed.

When the affair came to the knowledge of the county officials, Robinson was arrested. He at first denied shooting Williams, but after being lodged in jail, confessed to the crime, claiming justification in that he was acting in self-defense. Robinson is known in Petersburg, where he often came to purchase goods for his store.

Criminal Cases in Dinwiddie.

The Circuit Court of Dinwiddie was opened by Judge Southall to-day, with three cases of importance on the criminal docket. These are Claude Scott, white, charged with criminal attack, and Gus Neal, colored, indicted for burglary, both of the alleged crimes having been committed several months ago. Scott left the State, and was caught in Hinton, W. Va. He has been in the Petersburg jail ever since he was brought back on a requisition. Neal broke out of the Dinwiddie jail last summer, and was later captured in this city at the point of pistols. For safe keeping he has been confined in the jail here, from which last week he plotted to escape, but was detected and foiled. A third case is that of a negro boy, charged with the shooting and killing of a white girl.

Death of Well-Known Man.

Roper Johnson, a well known citizen of Prince George, died this afternoon in his home in that county, of heart trouble, with which he had been affected for some time. Mr. Johnson was widely known in this city, where he had many friends and relatives. He was about fifty-five years old, and is survived by his wife, three sisters and a brother—Mrs. J. E. Whitehorn, of this city; Mrs. Dr. T. J. Wright, of Norfolk County; Mrs. John H. Wright, of Roanoke; and Julius Johnson, of Newport News.

Getting Ready for Parcel Post.

Postmaster Stitt Bolling states that every arrangement that can be made has been made at the office in this city, to promptly and effectually carry out the parcel post regulations on January 1.

Death in Ettrick.

Mrs. Irene E. Butler, wife of Samuel R. Butler, died last evening in her home in Ettrick after a lingering illness, in her forty-eighth year. She was well known and much esteemed in the village. She is survived by her husband and one sister, Miss Carrie James, of Ettrick. A brother, George W. James, a merchant of this city, died a few days ago.

Methodist Sunday School Association.

The monthly meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Association of Petersburg and vicinity was held yesterday afternoon in Wesley Church, with the usual large attendance and interesting exercises. The reports from the eight schools embraced in the association showed the following aggregate averages for the month: average register, 2,183; average attendance, 1,774; per cent of attendance, 80; collections, $164.

To Dedicate New Castle.

Eureka Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will formally open and dedicate their new castle hall on Sycamore Street in January. The hall has been very handsomely finished and furnished, and is one of the most attractive halls in the State. A fine program is being arranged for the public opening, and a number of the grand lodge officers will be present to join in the exercises.

General News Notes.

The body of Mrs. Addie Bryant, wife of W. D. Bryant, who died yesterday at her home in Fredericksburg, will be brought here to-morrow for burial in Blandford Cemetery.

Miss Helen Gould, whose engagement is announced, is much esteemed in Petersburg, where some of her good work has been done. She was interested in the Railway Y. M. C. A. in this city, and recently pledged $5,000 for the new Y. M. C. A. building.

There were two conversations last night at the Washington Street M. E. Church, following Dr. George E. Hooker's services.

ROBBERS SECURE $300.

Break into Store at Green Bay and Blow Open Safe.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Green Bay, Va., December 16.—The general merchandise store of Rowlett & French here was robbed about 2:30 o'clock Monday morning. The safe was blown open and the contents, which amounted to more than $300 in cash and checks, were stolen. Several parties in the village heard the explosion, which was evidently the work of professionals, as nitroglycerine was used, a vital being found near the store this morning. Several crows were taken from the tool house of the Southern Railway Company here and used in moving the safe.

This is the second time within the last two months that the store of Rowlett & French has been robbed. No clue whatever has been found up to this time that would lead to the identity of the thieves.

Moore—Garrett.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., December 16.—Frank Moore, of Middlesex County, and Miss Mabelle Garrett, of King and Queen County, will be married at the home of the prospective bride December 22.

DOG'S TRAIL LEADS TO NEGRO'S HOME

Scott and Miller, Brothers-in-Law, Arrested in Connection With Thornton Murder.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Fredericksburg, Va., December 16.—George Scott and John Miller, colored, were arrested Saturday night in connection with the brutal murder of Mansfield Thornton and his wife, whose bodies were found in their home after the house had been burned Friday night in Spotsylvania County, near here.

Scott and Miller are brothers-in-law and live in the same house. A bloodhound from the State Farm was sent here last Saturday night by Governor Mann. The dog was taken to the scene of the crime in charge of a keeper, and after trailing around the vicinity for some time, went to the door of Scott's house. The house was searched and several articles of clothing belonging to Scott were found to contain blood spots. It was 3 o'clock in the morning when the parties returned here. Scott and Miller are in jail here.

Several hundred people from this city went out to the scene of the crime when the dog was carried out late Saturday night, using automobiles, buggies, wagons, and a number walked out to watch the dog at work. This was one of the most brutal murders ever committed in this section. Thornton and his wife are believed to have been killed with the club which was found, and their bodies placed in the same bed, and the house burned to hide the crime.

Both of Orange County, were married Thursday at the residence, in Orange, of the officiating minister, Rev. W. A. Orser.

KINZEL MAY GET APPOINTMENT.

Will Be Recommended for Postmaster at Harrisonburg by Hay.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Winchester, Va., December 16.—George H. Kinzel, who has been city treasurer for several consecutive terms, to-day received a letter from Representative James Hay, of the Seventh Congressional District, saying that he would recommend the appointment of Mr. Kinzel as postmaster here, succeeding Bentley Kern, whose commission expires in February, 1914. Thomas M. Barr, recently city campaign chairman, was a candidate. Recommendation by Mr. Hay is regarded as equivalent to appointment.

Callis—Davis.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., December 16.—Charles L. Callis, of Irvington, and Miss Fay Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, of Richmond County, were married a few days ago at the home of the bride.
